 - a. The one to the Jews
 - b. The one to the Gentiles
 - c. Both of them
 - d. None of them.
7. In Romans, Paul says that Israel is being blinded or prevented from recognizing the Upper Level and being blessed by God because:
 - a. They are waiting for someone like Paul to explain it to them in today’s language.
 - b. Because the Jews (Israel as a whole) are not going to recognize Jesus as Messiah until all of the Gentile nations have been reached.
 - c. God is waiting until a certain date in history when everything will be made clear to all.

8. True or False? According to the lesson, although Upper Level and Lower Level are in both the Old Testament as well as the New Testament, you may not see them referenced together but they are implied in the greater context of the scriptures.
- True
 - False
9. If you move into a new town and are looking into a new church and read their information packet and everything is about what the church does for the neighborhood, what programs they have for the members, local prayer ministry, and little information on reaching the nations for Christ, this church is probably:
- A Cat Church
 - A Dog Church
 - A church emphasizing the Top Line
 - All of the above
 - A and C
10. According to the lesson, if your church's main focus is on the Lower Level of the covenant, always ministering to internationals, sending teams around the world, helping the poor, and everyone is pouring themselves out reaching the nations, they may:
- "Burn Out"
 - Win all the unreached people groups in a year
 - Need to balance both the Top and Bottom lines of the covenant.
 - Win a great reward in heaven
 - Both A and C
